An estimated 3,175 new HIV infections in Canada in 2011 (9.5 per 100,000 population)

British Columbia
- 250 new HIV infections in 2011 (6.9 per 100,000 population)

Saskatchewan
- 230 new HIV infections in 2011 (22.3 per 100,000 population)

Ontario
- 1,400 new HIV infections in 2011 (10.9 per 100,000 population)

Atlantic Canada
- 35 new HIV infections in 2011 (1.5 per 100,000 population)

Alberta
- 115 new HIV infections in 2011 (9.5 per 100,000 population)

Manitoba
- 760 new HIV infections in 2011 (9.6 per 100,000 population)

Quebec
- 1,400 new HIV infections in 2011 (10.9 per 100,000 population)

Source: 2011 estimates from the Public Health Agency of Canada. Incidence rates have been calculated using 2011 census data from Statistics Canada. Exposure categories are based on a hierarchical classification at the time of diagnosis.

CATIE Ordering Centre Catalogue Number: ATI-40239