

“When I became pregnant, I suddenly felt very strong in myself. I had been afraid to test for HIV before, but now I needed to know. I wanted my baby to be healthy. Knowledge gives you the power to make difficult decisions.”

Have you been tested?

Making healthcare work for you.

Ontario

Early Years

For more information call:

The Ontario AIDS Hotline 1-800-668-2437
(English and 15 other languages)

1-800-267-7432 (French)

The Motherisk HIV Healthline 1-888-246-5840

Your doctor or local public health unit

Your local AIDS service organization

Financial assistance by Health Canada.

“There are so many things I want to pass on to my children. Our culture. Our language. Our traditions. But not HIV. That’s why I decided to get tested.”

Have you been tested?

Making healthcare work for you.

Ontario

Early Years

For more information call:

The Ontario AIDS Hotline 1-800-668-2437
(English and 15 other languages)

1-800-267-7432 (French)

The Motherisk HIV Healthline 1-888-246-5840

Your doctor or local public health unit

Your local AIDS service organization

Financial assistance by Health Canada.

“ We were overjoyed when we found out we were pregnant. We’d been trying for so long! Even though there was little chance that either of us would have HIV, we decided it was the responsible thing to do to get tested. We wanted to know for sure.”

Have you been tested?

Making healthcare work for you.

Ontario

Early Years

For more information call:

The Ontario AIDS Hotline 1-800-668-2437
(English and 15 other languages)

1-800-267-7432 (French)

The Motherisk HIV Healthline 1-888-246-5840

Your doctor or local public health unit

Your local AIDS service organization

Financial assistance by Health Canada.

“When I was pregnant the doctor at the clinic helped me realize I needed to get tested for HIV. Sure, I was scared about the results, but it turns out we’re going to be just fine. What a relief! For both of us.”

Have you been tested?

Making healthcare work for you.

Ontario

Early Years

For more information call:

The Ontario AIDS Hotline 1-800-668-2437
(English and 15 other languages)

1-800-267-7432 (French)

The Motherisk HIV Healthline 1-888-246-5840

Your doctor or local public health unit

Your local AIDS service organization

Financial assistance by Health Canada.

